Monaco has taken New York City in a high style that is only befitting of the chic principality. From February 11 through March 31, 2012, The Forbes Galleries in Manhattan will showcase Monaco's unique cultural heritage and Princess Grace's exceptional contributions to the arts in the exhibition, "A Legacy of Grace". On February 16, 2012, The Princess Grace Foundation-USA and the Monaco Government Tourist Office hosted an elegant and festive reception at The Forbes Galleries to celebrate the new exhibit. The exhibit is part of a series of Monaco Takes US events surrounding Les Ballets de Monte-Carlo's New York City performances. The exhibit will be open for free to the public through March 31, 2012.

The stunning, must-see exhibit includes a pictorial journey of Les Ballets de Monte-Carlo comprising photographs as seen through the eyes of renowned news photo-journalist Marie-Laure de Decker and Monaco-born art photographer Silas Shabelewska, original costumes from the company's rendition of Romeo and Juliet, video recordings of Les Ballet's history, productions and dancers, and rare footage and photographs highlighting Princess Grace's enduring patronage of culture and the arts and her rich legacy of support of promising artists in this collection of the Princess Grace Foundation-USA's 30-year history. This is an exhibit that should not be missed by any lover of the arts.
